

AMSE USF Student Section BBQ

The ASME Student Section at USF would like to extend an invitation to members of the FWCS section to join them for a BBQ to kick off the fall semester!

Details

Date:

Wed. Sept. 3, 2008

Time:

5:00pm - Social/BBQ

Location:

Room 114
Research Park at
University of South Florida
Tampa, FL

Dinner:

BBQ and beverages.

Cost:

Free. Donations to the student section are welcomed.

Please join us at USF for a BBQ with the USF Student Section if you are available. It will be a chance to network with members of the student section (Future Engineers!), get a feel for some of the projects going on at the Mechanical Engineering department of USF, as well as the ASME events the student section is planning for the fall term.

Sincerely,
Matt Montgomery
